

JR Kii Tanabe to Inabane Oji

JR Kii Tanabe to Inabane Oji

1 Akitsu Oji

Travelers seldom take the path to Akitsu Oji. It is thought to have been located in the Akitsu area of Tanabe city. The oji was on the route

2 Michiwake-stone sign post

Michiwake-stone signpost is located in Kitashin-machi in the downtown of Tanabe City. The sign shows the way to Kumano Sanzan? area when you

3 Maro Oji

Fujiwara Sada-ie (pen name, Teika) was born in 1162 and lived to the age of 79. He was a prolific writer, and his continuous diary covering

4 Misu Oji

The remains of Misu Oji are located on a gradual slope overlooking the plum orchards of Misu near Zenko-ji Temple. There is a stone monu

5 Yagami Oji

The name Yagami is recorded in Teika's travel journal in 1201 as Yakami Oji. This shrine became famous through monk Saigyō's waka poetry. In h

6 Inabane Oji

The path leading to Inabane Oji Shrine passes through a tunnel now, but the path is thought to have been over the small mountain through whic

